

Interviews and feedback

---

You can improve your job search techniques and increase your chances of finding work by making the most of expert advice and tools available on the internet. Here are some ideas to get you started. Please note the Jobcentre is not responsible for the content of any external websites and cannot guarantee the quality or security of any links. These are provided as examples and you may wish to conduct your own search for online information and advice.

Website	Quick link	Completed Please tick once you have reviewed the information
Getting the Job: Successful Interviewing from Progressive Recruitment. Detailed guide explaining how to make sure your interview proves you are the best person for the job.	http://assets.progressiverecruitment.com/Guides/Interview_tips.pdf
Video: Top 10 interview questions from The 2InterviewGuys on YouTube. A short animation explaining the top interview questions you need to be ready for and prepare to answer them There are lots more videos in the series to help you prepare for an interview.	http://youtu.be/l2IDGXX5-YY
Interview toolkit from My World of Work. Packed with ideas to help you deal with interviews including a 20 minute video exercise to test how well you answer competency based questions.	http://www.myworldofwork.co.uk/node/28265
Live interview tool from Go Think Big. Not quite an actual interview but a useful web tool to help you prepare for one. You can practice with common interview questions, and then see how experts would advise you to tackle each one.	https://gothinkbig.co.uk/tools/take-a-live-interview	